The 1952 Reflector

Published by the Students of Omaha
Technical High School

Omaha Technical High School is a general and comprehensive high school. Technical offers a complete range of academic work. Exceptionally well equipped shops and home economics laboratories provide for a wide variety of courses. The basic subjects and sequences are required for graduation as they are in all high schools.

Omaha Technical High School is fully accredited by the state university, and is also a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Graduates may enter any college in the country by selecting the proper electives, and by keeping and maintaining high standards of work.

Average school enrollment during recent years has been 2,300. Athletically speaking, it is the state's largest with 1,500 boys. The school's physical plant covers a three-square-block area at Thirty-third and Cuming Streets.

Dedication

The staff of the 1952 "Reflector," on behalf of the student body of Omaha Technical High School, dedicate this yearbook to retiring vice-principal, Mr. Chester G. Linn, for his untiring efforts toward the betterment of this school during the many generations since 1910.

The Unworked Mines

YOU, the graduates of 1952, are the "Unworked Mines." Each one of you has hidden in your mind many unknown treasures. A number of these treasures were obtained while you have been students at Technical High School.

Graduates, my advice to you is DIG! You will never know what is in you until you dig and bring forth your treasures.

Graduates, work your own mine for you will find and can bring forth many treasures because He who created man included many treasures therein.

Sincerely your friend,

CARL B. PALMQUIST.

Administration

12-1-1917 to 12-31-1917

Affairs of state are being discussed by Assistant Principal Louis Adolphson and Principal Carl Palmquist. Caught in the usual routine of daily conferences they may be probing Tech's administrative problems, recommending a student to a specialized college, or putting the final approval on the night school schedule. All in a day's work for Tech's top executives Athletics always takes precedence when John DeBoer and Chester Linn get together. Mr. DeBoer assumed the responsibilities of athletic director during the first semester absence of Mr. Linn. Scheduling, athletes' insurance, Intercity League rules and the school's athletic facilities all fall under the jurisdiction of these two.

work. (improvement)
agreements.

Miss Leora Jane Washburn turned untiring efforts toward the 1952 Senior Class as she has done with graduating Techsters for many years. Miss Washburn, as sponsor of the Olympians, supervised the Junior-Senior Prom, Most-and-Best Dance and all senior functions. Hats off for a job well done!

Reflections from Tech...

From Commerce To Tech

Omaha Technical High School, in one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two, Anno Domini—for most of you that time and place will take on significance. Inevitably, certain memories, certain sensations and emotions will become synonymous with that year, that place. Perhaps 1952 will count as a milestone in your life—or it may simply recall a nightmare that was your first English test. For some of you the school will always mean the excitement of new worlds to conquer. For others, it has been the focal point of that desire to know. What do you remember? A basketball game? A bit of philosophy from a favorite teacher? People? Saturday night dances? Maybe for you Tech is all of those things—for you learned that knowledge, and truth, and even wisdom, pop up at the darndest times and in the darndest places.

You see, it doesn't matter; it doesn't matter whether you drove an ancient car to school, or walked five blocks to see the senior play; it doesn't matter that you carried papers and the fellow sitting next to you in Social Studies lived across town. The physical aspects don't matter because you shared an experience, and yet that experience was, in another way, just your own and no one else's.

That's why this book, the REFLECTOR of 1952, is only an image of Omaha Technical High School with its 2,200 students and two-block long campus. If you are one of the lucky ones, you have felt the heartbeat of the real Tech High; you know its prejudices and ideals, the direction of its pattern. You realize that beneath the surface of routine and red tape and protocol, lies greatness.

But, as we said, this book can show only that surface, only the image. It cannot reproduce, it can only reflect your school for even though your life here forms a part of the image, yet the reality is deep within each of you.

So all we can hope is that in looking through the 1952 REFLECTOR, you will feel the urge to reach back and beyond the reflection to touch that reality—the reality that is Omaha Technical High School.

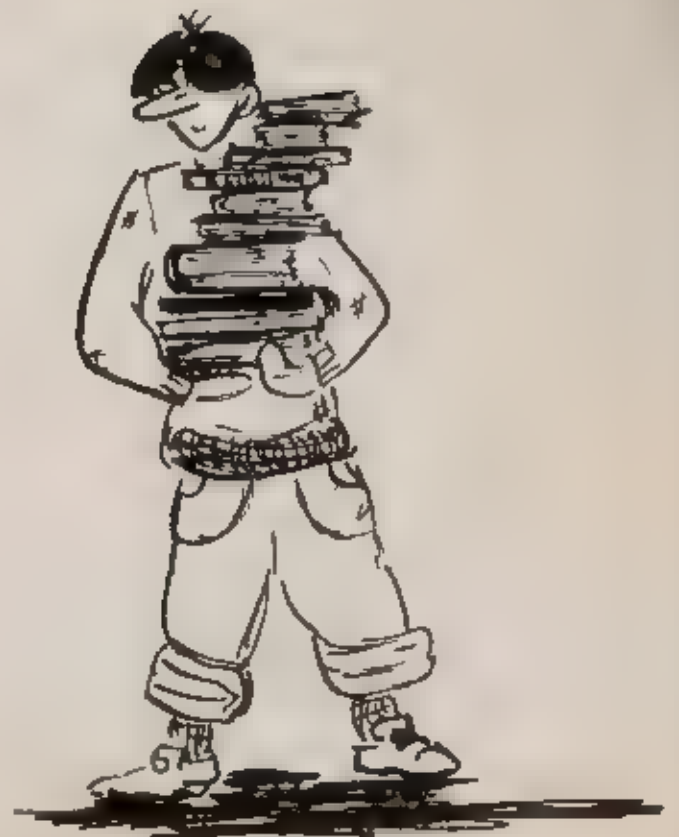

"All for each and each for all."

"I'M A TECH MAN, I JUST GOTTA TELL THEM
I'VE CLAIMED NOT TO MISTAKE ME FOR A TOWEL AGAIN"

Here goes your way hoping it turn out to be a ball to think we are getting in the (stadium) 1952 the last time in our year, hasn't the time passed by like? Of course there are lots of wonderful things to remember from our two years at JHS, like the Summer Party, where a bunch of the kids (you too) all went out side about two o'clock in the morning prancing around up and down the street in your pajamas. Remember (how could you forget that?) Lol, kidding
I know you at least a heart, and I hope I have you in mind for many many years to come. I think in the middle of next week our class is going to have to live in Calif. won't we (as kids miss, huh? Then we had so much fun this year, and I was in Fort & study hall remember all the times we sat and talked and miss. I know you were nervous the day to be quite, remember all the times we would laugh at that one boy that sat looking up at the wall. Remember, the first time we had went to the "Enterprise" where all of us kids ed through the whole picture and how mad the teachers got at you, and me for laughing and talking.
Sure hope you do remember and will never forget all the wonderful times we had together - these still two more years of school, and it won't be long and you will be

Prep Scores First Loop Win Over Tech

21-0 Setback Completes Intercity Rout for Kennedy's Team

By Don Lee

One man's joy was another's embarrassment on the Hilltop Monday night. The joy belonged to L. G. Friedrichs, who guided Creighton Prep. Moran put on one of the best punting demonstrations in the league in years. Tech managed one challenge. The Maroons connected with several passes in the fourth quarter.

*4-7 from Coast

from Bob Brown*

Husky Bob Brown was one of the bright spots in a drab Tech season. Big Bob was chosen to many "All-Opponent" teams. The 190-pounder gave good account of himself whenever a rival ball-carrier tried his position

(BENSON 7)

The only bright spot in an otherwise drab and win-less season was Tech's 7-7 tie with the Benson Bunnies early in October. The Maroon tally, the first in three games, came in the third stanza on the kick-off. Scatback Haskell Lee gathered in the ball and raced 97 yards to score. Captain Bob Gloden converted the extra point.

Benson's only score came from the famed spread-formation on a 26-yard scoot by Jack Brandt. And Brandt also kicked the all-important extra point.

That wasn't all the scoring, however. Tech's Charlie Corbin broke through center for a 42-yard gallop only to have the TD called back on an off-side penalty.

It was Tech 7, Benson 7.

Little "Twinkle Toes" Charles Corbin was an elusive man to catch once he broke into the open. "Charlie" always a threat was unable to "cut loose" often against the tough opposition.

End Carl Bryant was a full fingered pass catcher on Kennedy's eleven through a demanding schedule. Carl was a feared competitor on defense as well.

RESERVES RUNNERS-UP IN '51

Points were precious to Coach Bob Anderson in his initial season as assistant football coach. Anderson's reserve squad was the team to beat all during the rugged season. But Omaha Benson caught his eleven at a weak moment in the closing game of the year. And the Intercity League championship went to Omaha Central by default by virtue of a 6-0 Benson victory.

Standouts for the reserve gridders were Roland Russell, Dick Mackie, Dick Carr, Jim Andrews, Frank Rule, Don MacMahill and Rex Hill.

At mid-season Negro scatback Haskell Lee went into varsity togs by virtue of his sterling play on the reserve squad in early games.

Anderson's attack featured screened pass plays and sparkling runs by Mackie, Russell and Lee.

Frosh 23-Game Win Streak Snapped

One of the longest single team winning streaks came to an end during the freshman football season. The frosh gridgers, under the tutelage of Neal Mosser for the past three years, had a 23-game victory string snapped by Omaha North yearlings.

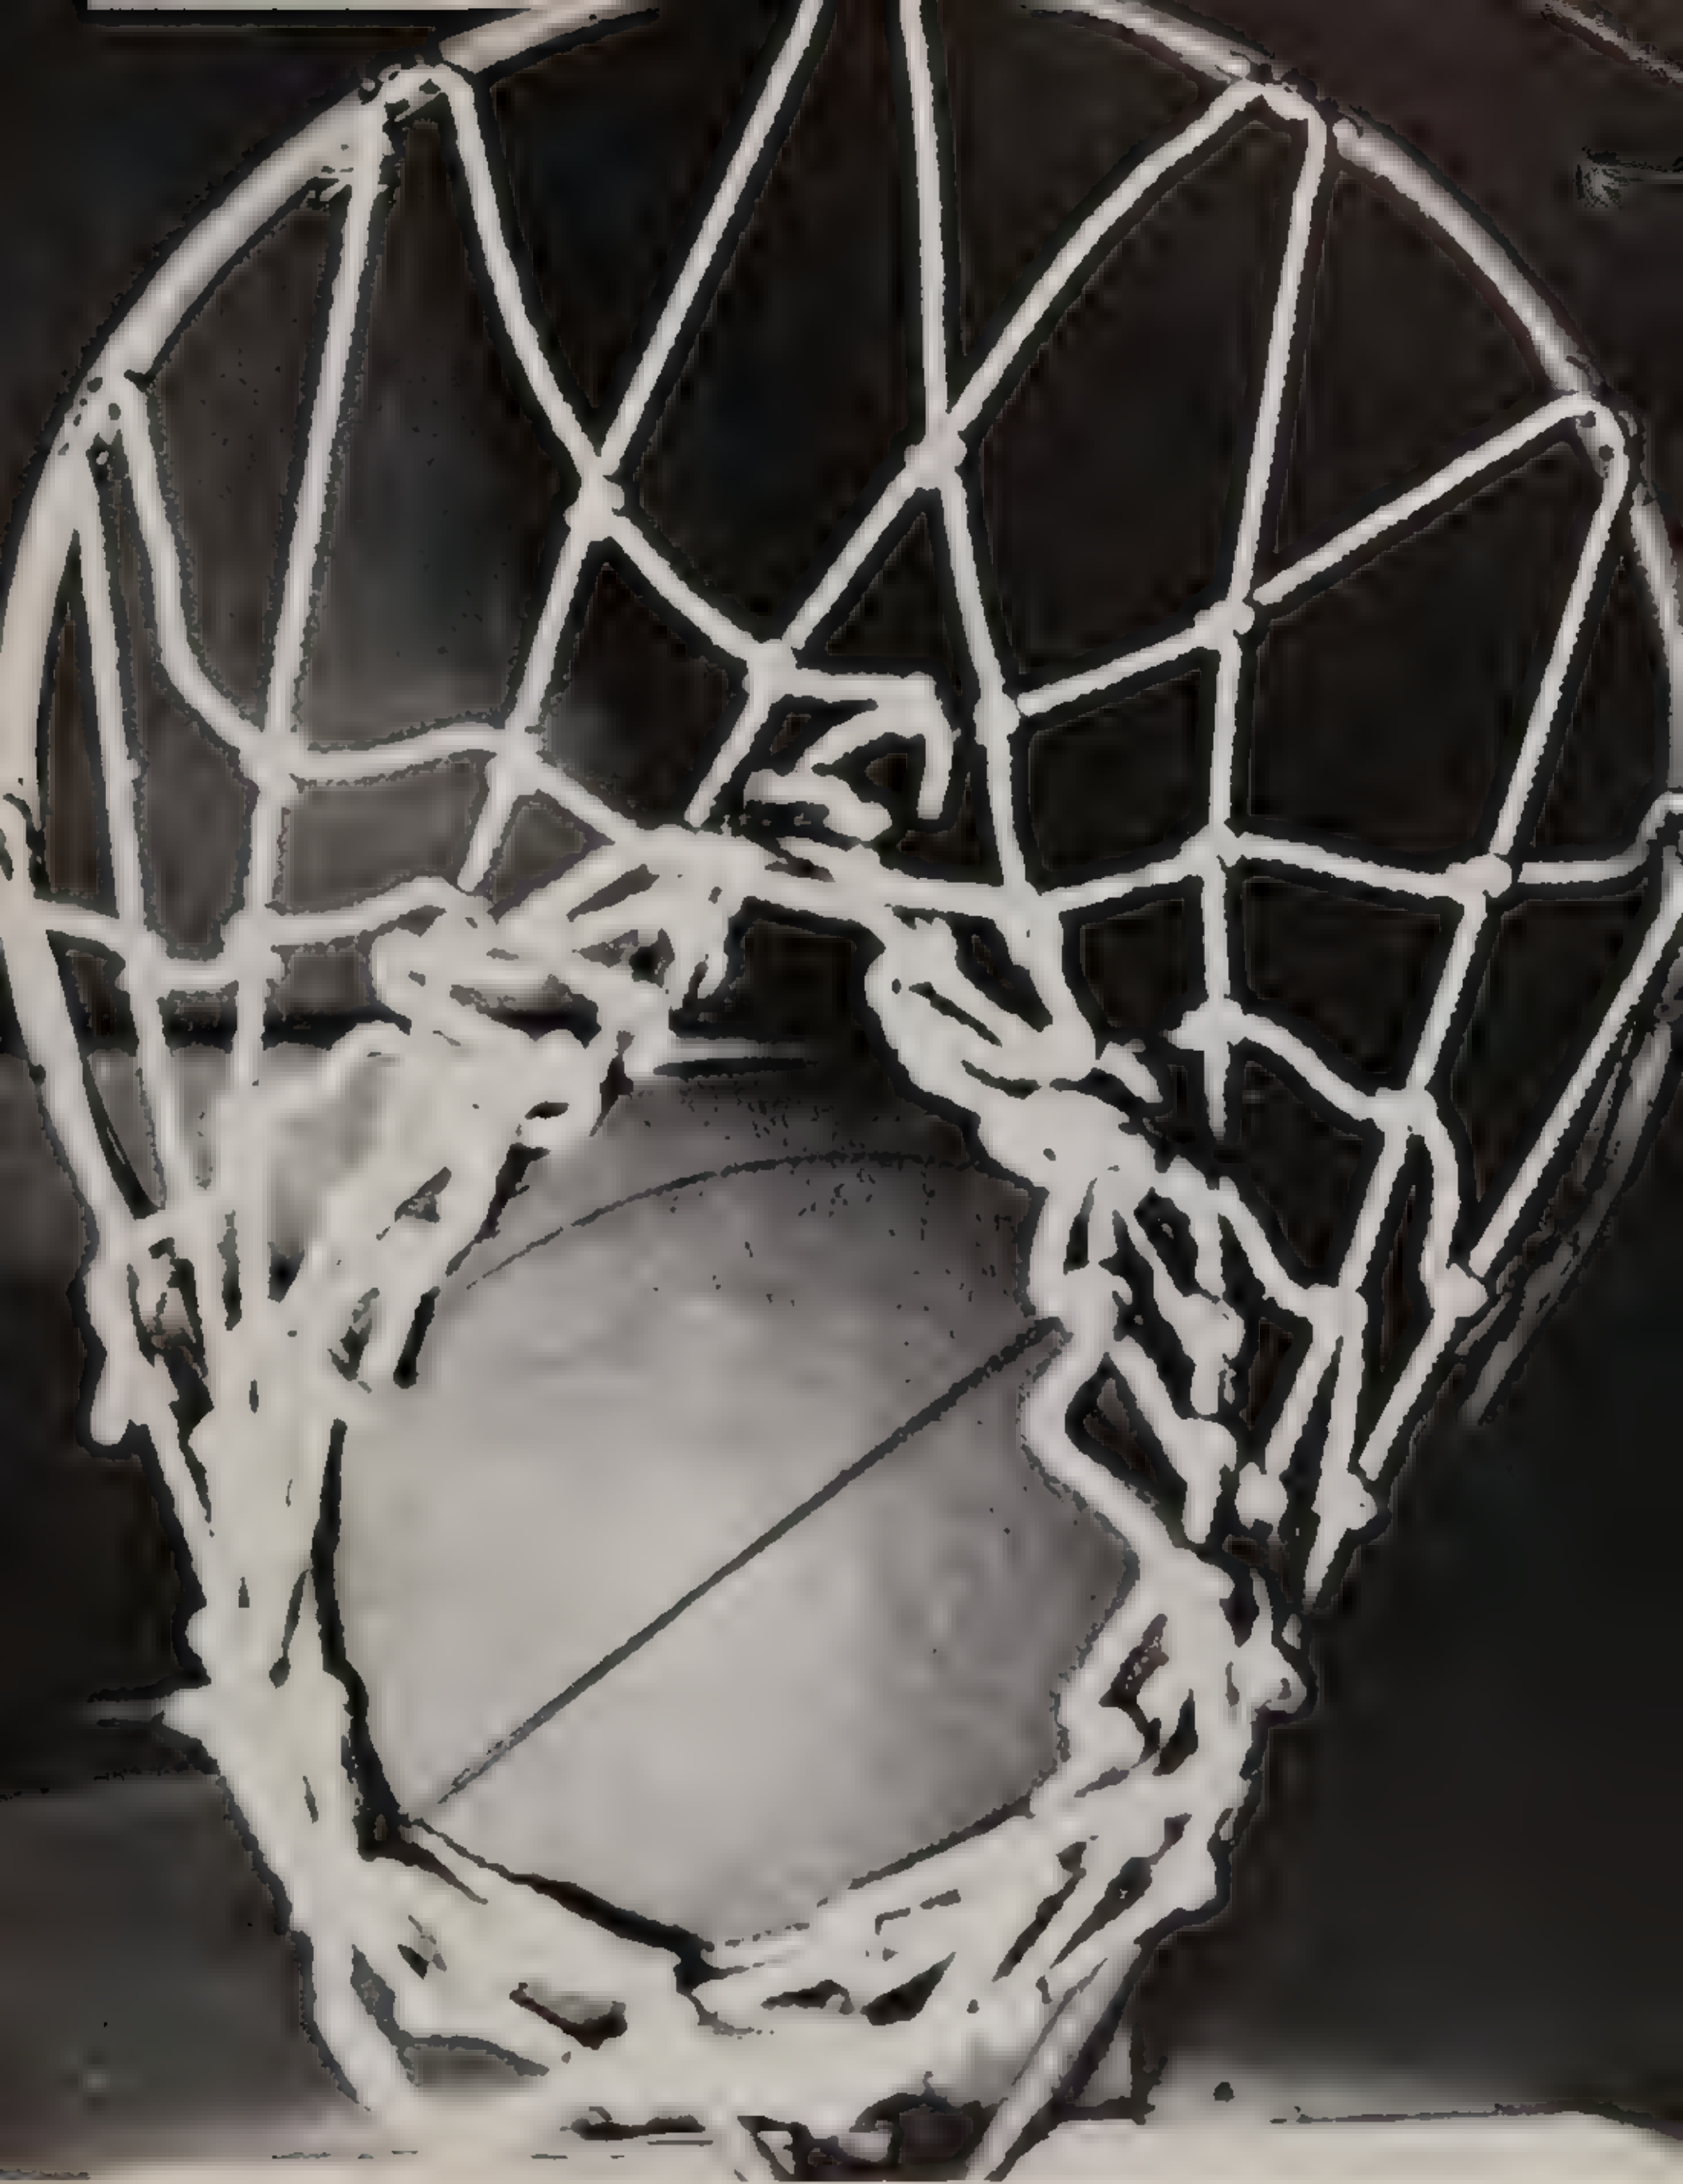

The winning habit stretched all the way back to the days when "Dutch" White was the frosh mentor. It was Mosser's initial loss since he took up the coaching reins on the gridiron. His record was marred by three ties in this three year period.

The Omaha North win gave the Vikings the Intercity League championship.

The game, a hotly contested classic, was not decided until the final gun. Tech came out on the short end of a 7-6 decision. The half ended as the Lil' Maroons pushed within one yard of North's goal.

Injuries were stumbling blocks all season for Ken Kennedy's gridiron charges. Here's an on-the-spot picture of Gordon Dunn just after he sustained a head injury in one of the season's bruising contests. He recovered.

Basketball

Head Basketball Coach Neal Mosser makes cage talk with his two assistants, Ken Kennedy, freshman tutor, and Lloyd Berg, reserve mentor. These three coaches have made Intercity foes take notice of Maroon quintets since Mosser's reign began at Tech three years ago. Kennedy is a Notre Dame grad; Mosser matriculated at Purdue and Nebraska; Berg schooled at Montana State and Iowa.

(Above)—High-scoring Glen Sullivan is caught in a familiar pose during the hotly-contested Tech-Abs Lincoln scrap. South-paw Sully's jumpshots were the toast of the league during the 1951-1952 season and he was always a marked man. The Lynx's Dick Henderson (26) moves in for the rebound as Dick Crowl (24) makes a futile attempt to block the shot. A. L. won, 48-45.

"Play the system," instructs Coach Neal Mosser during a pre-game chalk-talk. The Maroons' rangy pivot men have raised havoc with local opposition during recent years and Mosser takes advantage of 'em. Coach Mosser—once high scorer among Indiana college stars—is an enthusiastic perfectionist when it comes to the cage sport.

If size had anything to do with being a good manager, Joe Perry would be tops! He's pictured here with Varsity Manager Jack Dailey. These two boys handled the equipment chores during the 1951-1952 season. If you think they look tired here . . . they are; How would you like to sort 100 socks?

Gerald Curnyn

It took a little time and plenty of work for these two lads to join their varsity brothers on Tech's first squad. Up from the second team Jerry Parks (left) and Gerald Curnyn proved their mettle with Lloyd Berg's reserves and were "promoted" just after mid-season. Curnyn's elevation was a startling one, but much deserved. He developed late in the season and showed well during the Sioux City junket. Jerry always a nifty performer, was the spark of Berg's reserves for two seasons.

Lou Pendrock, a steady eager, did not appear to have the scoring spark, but his rebounding work and timely buckets padded Tech's field goal totals. Look closely . . . he's not about to be trampled by the pair of feet near the top of the picture. The shot was taken from Tech's balcony.

Missouri Valley Title to Tech

Championship honors went to the 1951-1952 Omaha Tech basketball entry in the Missouri Valley League. The Maroons' title bid came during the final year of the circuit's life. Re-scheduling of Omaha teams has forced extinction of the once-powerful Missouri Valley League.

Tech's record of six victories against a single set-back was the top cage record against conference foes. Lincoln Central finished second with a 5-1 record.

"S" stands for Sullivan, Tech's All-Intercity basketball selection. And "S" might signify Glen's scoring punch which found him among the city's top basket-makers. This "S" could also stand for southpaw. The Maroon's scoring nifty is a left-handed shooter and he caused opponents plenty of grief during the past two seasons. Both the Omaha World-Herald and the Council Bluffs Nonpareil named Glen to the first team.

Game Captain Glen Sullivan (wearing number 33 black jersey) questions a decision during the final moments of the third quarter against Hastings' Tigers. The query was to no avail. Sullivan fouled out.

Ball-handling Bob Gibson registers surprise for the photographer during the Hastings trip. The Maroons upset the tough out state club, 67-57, and Brother Gibson's grasp on the round-ball was a deciding factor. No, he's not a flat head . . . that's the photographer's fault!

Reserve Squad Runners-up in '52

Omaha Tech's La'l Maroons coached by Lloyd Berg missed by a few percentage points of winning their second straight Intercity Second Team League title. The Reserves' 11-3 record in circuit play fell short of Benson's 9-2 record in final standings. The Maroon Reserves played a double round robin with every team in the loop, losing only to Benson (twice) and Central.

Sophomore Jack Hansen was named the team's "most valuable player" by his teammates at the conclusion of the season. Hansen playing his second year on the reserve squad received a plaque donated by Coach Berg for his outstanding play.

Many fine team performances were sprinkled through the season with one of the high points coming against Abe Lynx on the Tech maples. The Reserves held a usually potent, fast-breaking Lynx quintet to only three baskets in the entire contest and limited the Council Bluffs club to six free tosses in the opening half. Tech won easily, 29-19.

Some sort of a record in futility was set during the cage season. Berg's maplemen missed over 200 chances at the charity line in 16 contests. This weakness was one of the direct causes for the team's trio of setbacks.

Outstanding players on the 1951-1952 squad included Norman Lastovica, Russell Cook, Jack Hansen, Donald Russell, Frank Rule, Bob Bass, Tom Peterson and Merle Bolte.

Over a two-season span Berg's Intercity entry has won 23 contests while losing only four.

Number 33 Glen Sullivan dealt Hastings a fit on these timely left-handers. He took a backseat to Artie Sanders and John Hogan in the tally department though. A smile for the troops is what Assistant Coach Lloyd Benz gives fellow passengers on the Hastings trip. And he came back mighty proud of his former pupil Jerry Parks who netted seven points. How much for those steaks?" asks Coach Neal Mosse on the return trek from Hastings. Bob Gibson chops his jowls in anticipation. The bus driver apparently has no comment. Locker laughs dominated as Manager Joe Perry "holds" as Glen Sullivan puts for the camera. Assistant Manager Skorgman looks for fouls and Traveling Scorer Clark Swanson (below) tracks the total. Cagoy Lou Pendrock (42) ducks the vigorous play.

FROSH CAGERS STRONG, RANGY

Under the tutelage of Coach Ken Kennedy, the Tech basketball yearlings gave a good account of themselves during the 1951-1952 cage season. Plenty of height and some good floor play featured the league play. The frosh tied for fourth.

Coach Kennedy singled out Artillius Breakfield, Jack Hamilton, Sheldon Carlson, Ernest Mackey and Marvin Minnis as possible varsity material in future years. Breakfield is an eighth grader.

"He's a good floor man, a driver and a fine leader," said Kennedy when speaking of Jack Hamilton.

Swish! A Tech basket is registered against Fremont and the tally was caught by this unusual shot. But the counter wasn't enough as Fremont upset the Maroons, 47-45, in a thriller.

Fremont's flashy forward moves in for a close shot as Tech's Lou Pendrock maneuvers to halt the goalward drive. Seniors Pendrock and Sullivan, as well as Junior John Hogan, showed well in this state tournament contest.

Coach Neal Mosser mimics a shooter in a half-time session with his charges. Lou Pendrock and Glen Sullivan (background) watch as Mentor Mosser tries to solve the Fremont attack. It was the second straight year that the Tigers ousted the Omaha Tech tourney entry.

Swim Team Results:

Tech's 1951-1952 swimming team participated in 10 prep meets during the season. Boys Town dunked the Maroon mermen twice and ditto Lincoln. Tech finished third in a triangular meet with Lincoln and Boys Town; placed third in the state meet ahead of Hastings and South; finished second in the National Junior Boys AAU with 69 points; and were among the first three teams in two other AAU meets.

Grapplers Runner-Up at North Invitational

BOB ANDERSON

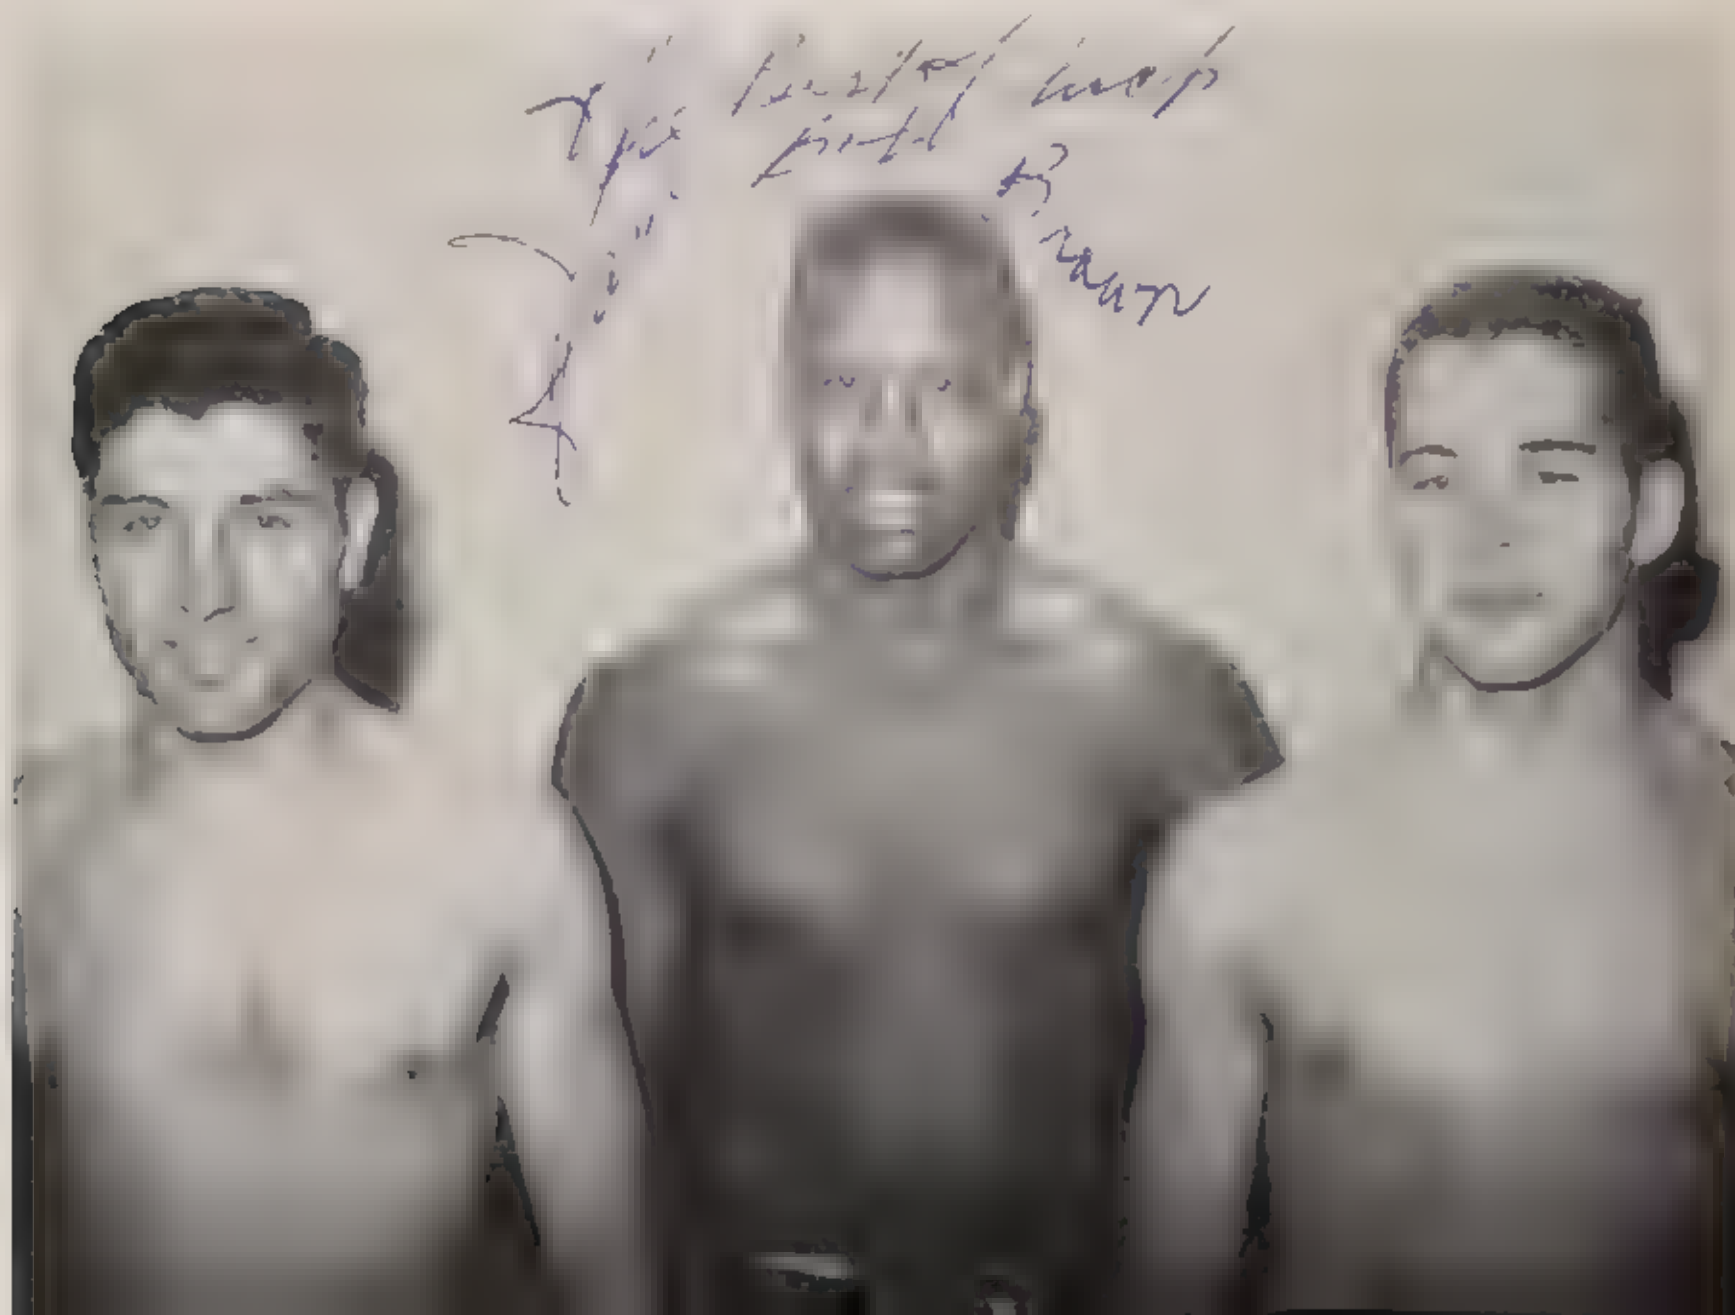

Coach Bob Anderson's 1952 wrestling team showed well in the Omaha North Invitational Wrestling Meet as the Maroon matmen finished a fraction of a point behind Omaha South. It was the best wrestling reward of the year. Close contests featured the North tourney with Intercity Champion South barely nosing out a surprisingly strong Tech entry. Jack Cosgrove, Dean Corner, and Rich Stauffacher won clear-cut championships in this meet.

Dean Corner was the only Tech grappler to win state laurels.

Richard Stauffacher and Dean Corner were Tech's only state wrestling champions. Rich copped the 112-pound honors while Dean won the 95-pound title. Both boys were far-and-away the class of their weights and will return next year to bolster Tech grappling hope.

The Tech wrestling team has a record of 22 wins, 10 losses and 1 tie. Max Vazzano left, and Jack Cosgrove, right, pinned up enviable records during the 1951-52 season. And the same goes for Heavyweight Bob Brown. Illness prevented Jack from flashing his best, but he cropped only two tests during the season.

Sports Memories and the "Dutchman" . . .

A year of sports has ended. This dynasty of athletes cavorting in their chosen fields was sprinkled with comebacks, peculiarities, surprise and tragedy. There has been much to remember . . .

Recollections of football recall early season despairs, mid-season mediocrities and occasional flashes of brilliance in the closing games.

Basketball—There are memories. Another successful season was marred only by rough treatment in Lincoln. In the state tournament, against an inspired Fremont team, the three deities of fate, Clotho, Lachesis and Atropos according to mythology, but in this case Faris, Neff and Donohoue, once again stepped in, and this time their entrance was fatal. The Maroons were tumbled in their second successive state tournament outing. It took fine team play, inspiration and ill luck to do it.

Not to be shunned in the memory parade is wrestling, for memories play no favorites. Skillful Maroon matmen won their share of individual honors, but overall strength and dame luck prevented more grappling plums.

The swimmers, too, carved a niche in the athletic memories. Competing against the state's flashiest tankers, the Tech splashers, a bit shy on skill, were long on guts and showed well.

Spring, as in other years, brought track. A valiant band of thinclads provided gay memories of warm afternoons and stunning victories. An inch more in the broadjump, a quicker exchange in the relays, and things might have been different. But meets aren't won on "might-have-beens." And the guiding light for the cindermen was Dutch White, the perennial molder of tomorrow's men. Slow paced, slightly bent forward, a man who loves boys and athletics, is Dutch White . . . a man with a voice calloused and hardened by years of summoning athletes on the field. Dutch White will always be remembered as a gray-haired believer in the "rock-'em-and-sock-'em" theory who was ever alert for a possible sprinter or a man in the weights, and always surprised to find that this boy or that boy isn't out for track.

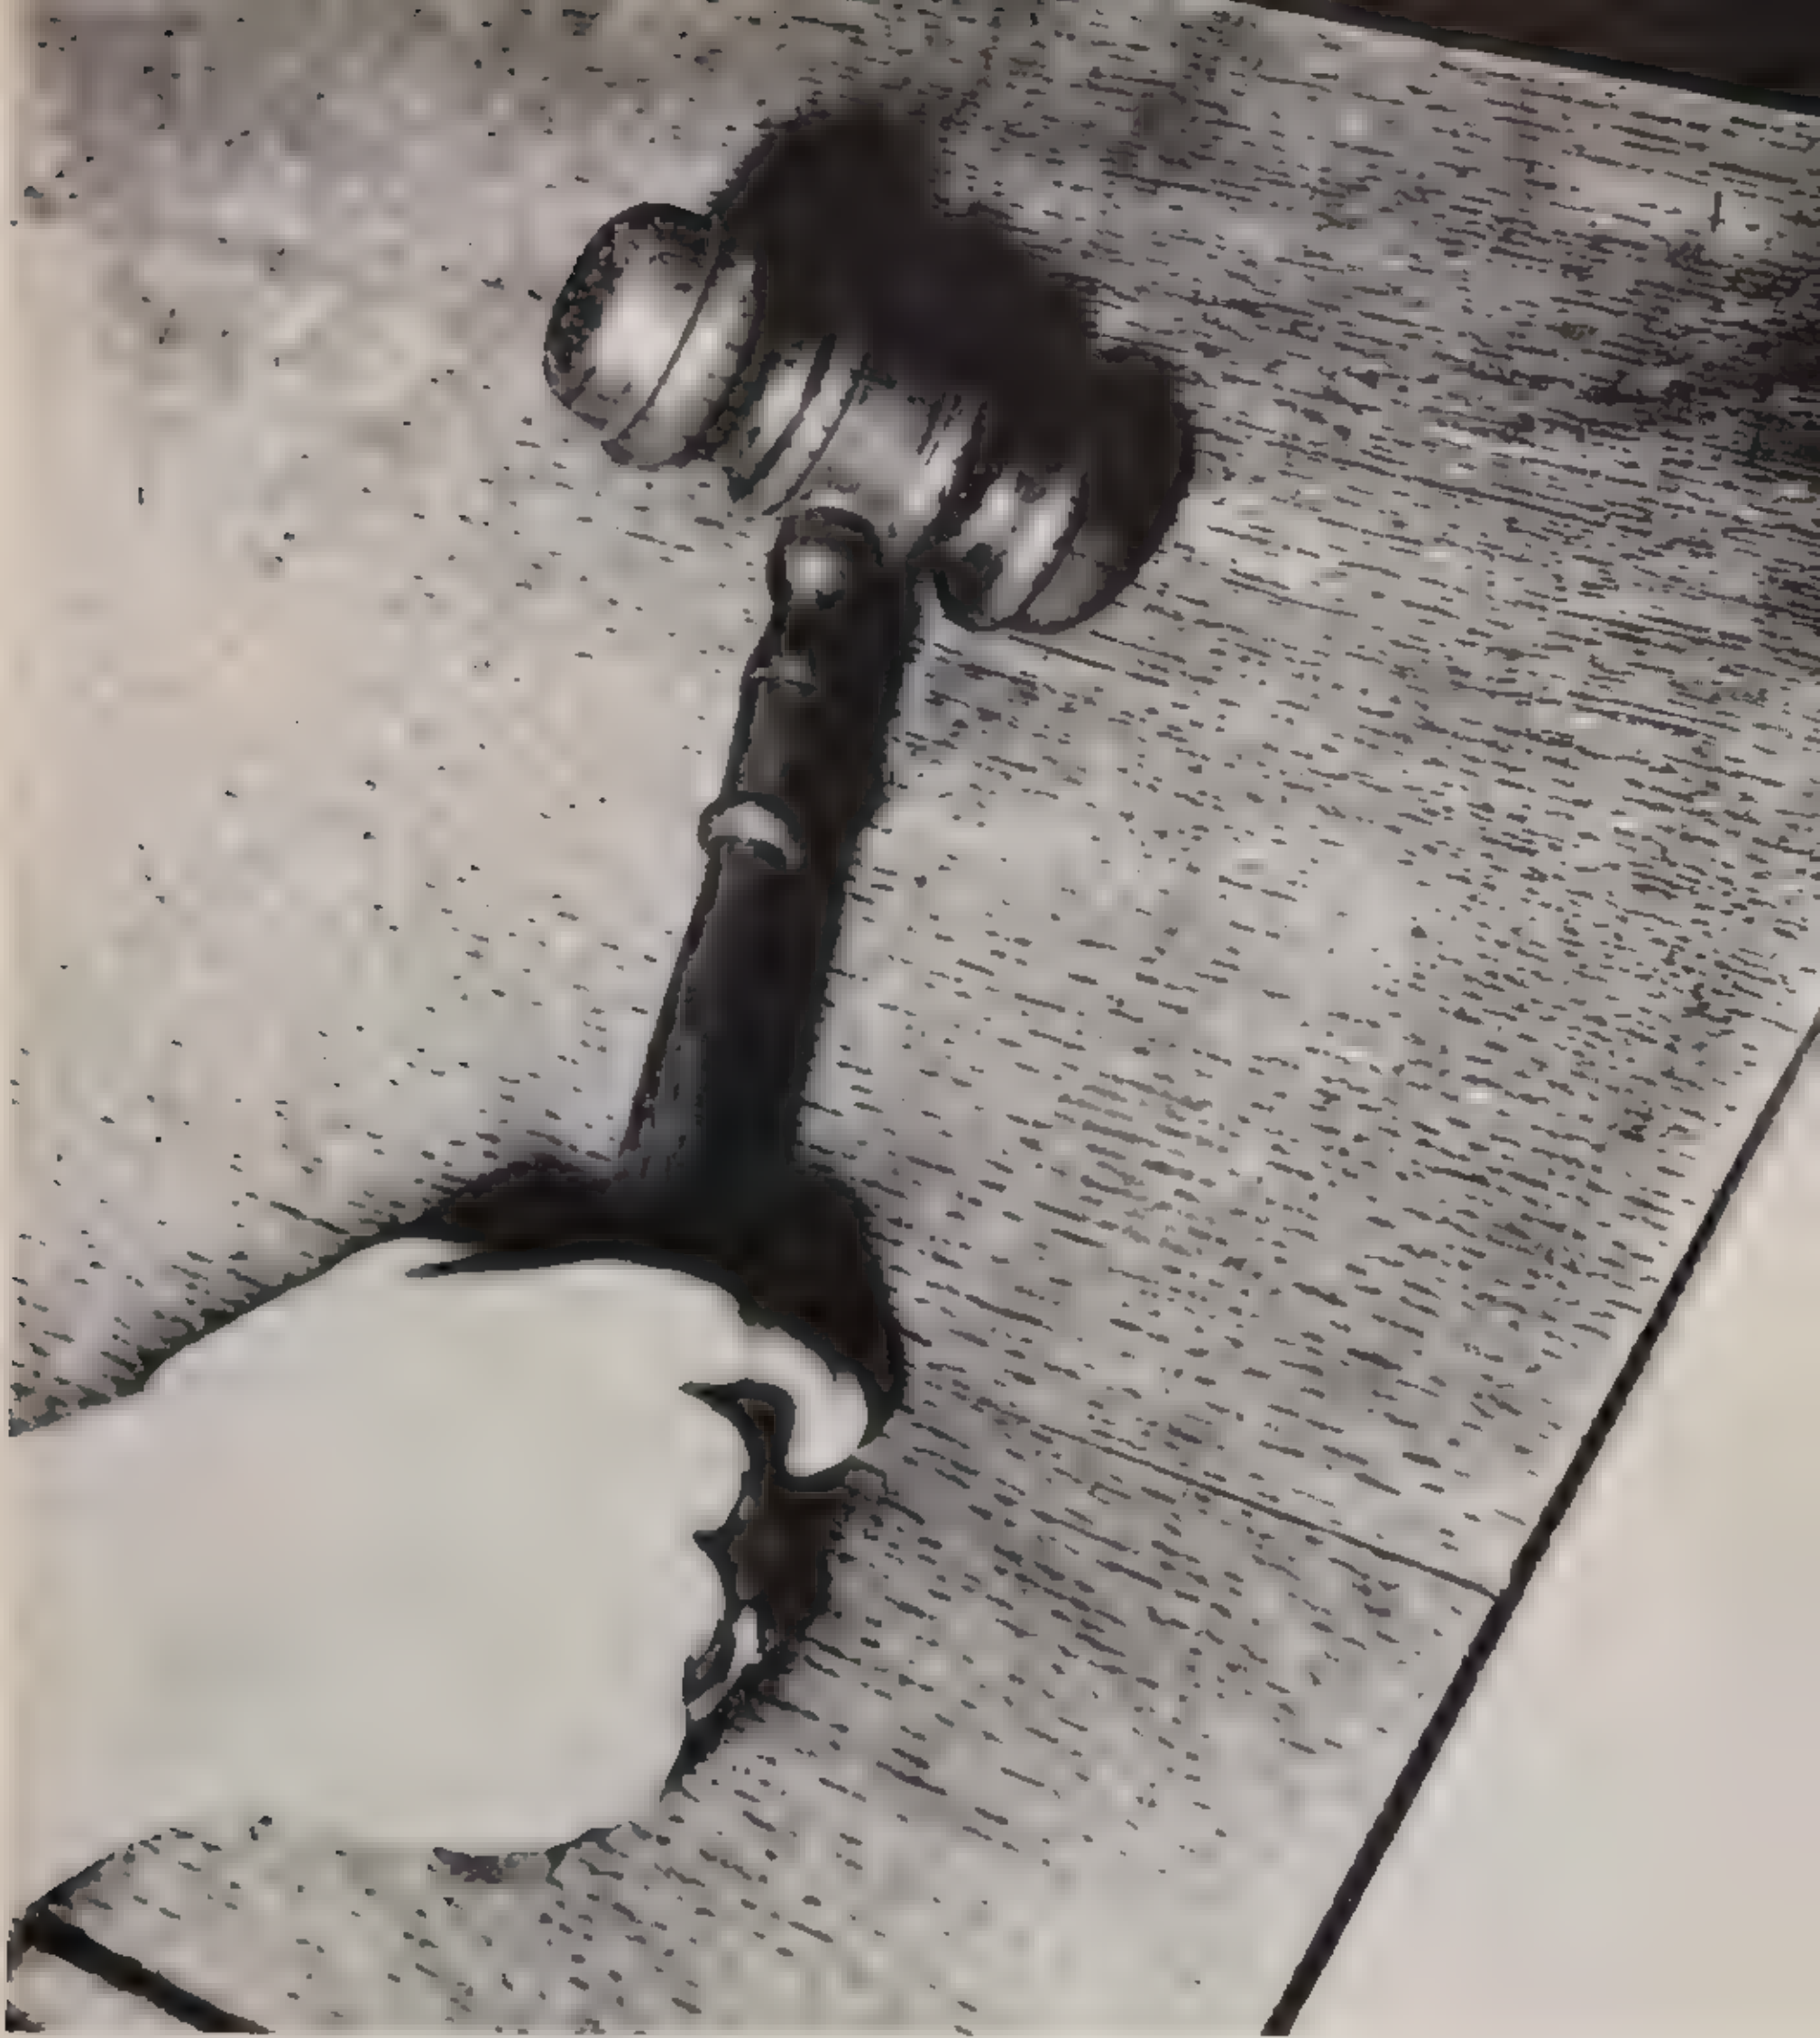

The annual staff, bound by printing deadlines, was unable to give track any picture coverage. And for this reason the staff members—joined by the many generations of athletes who were products of the ole Dutchman—would like to pay tribute to Dutch White by printing this typical pose.

Choir

Tech's vocal enthusiasts are shown here during a formal choir presentation. Hazel Reynolds accompanies while Grace Hyde directs. The choir performed frequently at various school activities, including concerts, operettas and musicals.

CHORAL CREED

If courage, determination, and valor is needed . . . we have it;

If ability, talent and ambition is needed . . . we have it;

If body, soul and mind is needed . . . we have it;

For the purpose of the Senior Choir is to sing its best, for the best . . . at its best.

"Mlle. Modiste," Victor Herbert's comic operetta, was presented by the Senior Choir last November. The performance was one of the highlights of the vocal season. Shown here is a scene from the operetta in which Barry Kuhl gives his vocal interpretation with the other actors providing musical background.

Gay acrobatics were featured by Yvonne Golding and drew enthusiastic applause from spectators as she twisted and twirled through difficult positions. Yvonne is pictured above, right center.

 Janice Path, Donna Rice and Pat Cosgrove.

Carolyn Buckley

Phil Kaus and Nola Johnson shared the leads in the dramatic production of "The Little Minister" during the two-day run of the school play.

Leads in "Seventeenth Summer" went to Nola Johnson and Ron Stokes. They're centering their conversation on the kewpie doll, which also played a part in the production.

Bob Gloden and Mary Sue Gooding, attendants to the King and Queen, step into the spotlight during the young's festivities. The pair is shown in upper right.

Certainly worthy of being included among the "activities" of the past school year are these picture reports of a mid-year robbery at Tech High School. The photograph at the upper left shows pieces of the combination lock, damaged beyond repair. A hand points to the safe handle and fingerprint powder used by investigating officers. A considerable sum of money was taken, but the culprits were later captured.

This comic one dollar bill was just one of the many tricks enjoyed by Tech students at a first semester activity number featuring George Jason in a fun-filled hour of mirth, music and magic.

Larry Jones moved into the television limelight this year as he was starred on his own "Country Store" program on KMTV. Larry's 12:15 show featured request numbers ranging from cowboy ballads to popular song hits.
